

SUMMER SCHOOL 2021

Choral Courses

Thursday 12th – Sunday 15th August 2021

Jesus College, Cambridge

NEW VENUE
FOR 2021

Our three choral courses are a popular addition to our annual SfP Summer School. These three-day courses are ideal for people coming to Summer School and for whom a half-week course is more convenient. Registration is at 9.00am on Thursday morning (or 4pm on Wednesday if you wish to stay an extra night) and the courses end after breakfast on Sunday. The choral courses form part of a week-long programme of activities for conductors and singers.

TIMETABLE

Each day will consist of a vocal warm-up followed by workshop and technique sessions, with plenty of refreshment breaks. The whole course also combines forces to perform a large choral work, accompanied by orchestra and conducted by our Advanced conducting students. This year's orchestral piece is John Rutter's joyful Magnificat. An alternative, informal series of workshops (exploring different genres and themes) will be provided for those who are happier singing in a smaller group.

The friendly atmosphere at Summer School is really special, and there is plenty of opportunity to attend concerts and social activities alongside your workshops.

"Everyone involved with SfP is so encouraging, friendly and talented. The course was better than a holiday. I am definitely coming again next year!"
